Mrs. E. Julson

Services for Mrs. Edwin (Ida) Julson, 92, were held Thursday, Nov. 8, at 2 p.m. in the Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel with the Rev. Larry Moore officiating.

Burial was in the Groton Union Cemetery.

Mrs. Julson died November 4 at the Redfield Community Hospital.

Mrs. Mark Forgey, soloist, sang "Rock of Ages" and "Abide With Me," accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Alberts, organist.

Pallbearers were Don Dobberpul, Richard Ruden, Clarence Von Wald, Lyle Von Wald, Earl Zoellner and Richard Zoellner.

Mrs. Julson was born December 26, 1880, in Hustisford, Wis., and had lived in Groton since 1882. For the past years she had been a resident of the Eastern Star Home in Redfield. She was married March 10, 1913, in Sioux Falls, and was a member of the Groton Chapter of the OES.

Survivors include two sons, Robert of Bremerton, Wash., and Del of Aberdeen; and three grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, one son, two brothers and one sister.
