Mrs. Mary King

Services for Mrs. Earl (Mary) King, 89, rural Stratford, were held Friday afternoon, Jan. 24, at the Gates-Vik Funeral Home in Aberdeen. The Rev. Robert Carey of the Groton Presbyterian Church officiated. Burial was in Sunset Memorial Gardens.

Mrs. King died Tuesday, Jan. 21, at Dakota Midland Hospital after a long illness.

Mrs. I.E. Marston was the organist and ushers were Dennis Rossow and Lyle Ellingson.

Honorary pallbearers were George H. Pagel, William Rossow, Adolph Rossow, all of Stratford; Herman Schinkel, Ferney; William Oliver, Warner; and Kent Baird, Aberdeen.

Active pallbearers were Gordon Campbell, Don Voigt, Harlan Peterson, Aberdeen; Otho Schaller, Ferney; Dale Dunker, Verdon; and Clarence McNeil, Stratford.

Attending in a group were members of the OES, Rebekah Lodge, Good Cheer Club and officers and members of the Yelduz Shrine.

Mary Greifenhagen was born on May 7, 1885, in a sod house near Stratford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Greifenhagen, pioneers of Dakota Territory.

She was married March 25, 1939, to Earl King at Webster. They established their home at rural Stratford. She was a resident of that area all her life. Mr. King died in 1956.

She was a member of the Conde chapter, Order of the Eastern Star; Rebekah Lodge of Stratford; and Good Cheer Club of Garden Prairie Township.

She was preceded in death by her husband and two brothers.
