

June 18, 1931

MRS. KATHERINE KRAFT

Mrs. Katherine Kraft, a highly respected lady living in the vicinity of Huffton, died at the home of her son, C. C. Kraft last week and was buried in the Groton Catholic cemetery, following services held in the local Catholic church and conducted by Rev. Fr. Shanley. Her death was caused by diabetes.

Mrs. Kraft was born in Russia, September 25, 1851. We have been unable to procure a complete obituary concerning Mrs. Kraft, and are unable to state what relatives survive her.