

Eunice Maunu

Eunice Maunu, 69, Aberdeen died Friday, May 3, 2002 of cancer at her residence.

Her funeral was held Monday, May 6, 2002 at the Miller-Huebl Funeral Home, Aberdeen. Officiating was the Rev. Reino Maunu. Burial was at Riverside Cemetery, Aberdeen.

Eunice was born on March 6, 1933, to Wallace and Grayce (Wenzel) Blair at Aberdeen. She was raised and educated in Aberdeen. She married Lester Maunu in March of 1952. She lived in Frederick, South Dakota until moving back to Aberdeen in 1969. She worked as a bartender for nine years and a hotel clerk for five years.

Eunice enjoyed making crafts, going to rummage sales, playing cards, shaking dice, watching wrestling, listening to country music, and having coffee with her friends and relatives. She always made sure no holidays or birthdays were missed. Everyone who knew her loved her very much. Her home was always the gathering place for friends and family to visit. She has touched the hearts of many people and will always be remembered and loved.

She is survived by three sons, Micheal Maunu of Aberdeen; Robert Maunu and Wayne Maunu both of Denver, Colo.; four daughters, Debra Maunu, Rebecca Glover, Cynthia Pigors, and Lisa Marie Maunu all of Aberdeen, SD; three sisters, Beverly Peldo, Frederick; Judith Sheldon, Aberdeen; and Linda McCabe, West Virginia; 19 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Preceded in death by parents, one infant son, one daughter, and three sisters.

Casket bearers were grandsons: Shane Glover, Micheal Maunu Jr., Jason Maunu, Billy Maunu, Lonnie Pigors, and James Pigors.
