

April 2, 1959

WILLIAM A. McCOMSEY

Last rites for a resident of the Brentford community since 1910, William A. McComsey, were held Tuesday of last week, at the Congregational Church there, with the Rev. Einar Mickaelsen officiating.

Mr. McComsey, a farmer, died at his home March 20. He was born on April 21, 1889, at Ashville, Pa., and was married Sept. 19, 1914, to Pearl L. Holcomb at Aberdeen.

Survivors include two sons, Arthur, Stratford, and Harold, Conde; one daughter, Mrs. Arnold Sanders, Stratford; two sisters, Mrs. Loretta Thompson and Mrs. Francis Gray, both of Oxford, Pa., and nine grandchildren.

His parents, wife and two sisters preceded him in death.

Active pallbearers were Jimmy Mathew, Maynard Trudy, Maurice Ugland, Tony Van Hatten, Bobby Bohl and Kenneth Kramp. Honorary pallbearers were Harry Stoltenberg, Bob Bohl, Jule Ugland, Brady Reynolds, Herman Haven and Jens Lillomoe.

Burial was in the West Rondell Cemetery with the Paetznick Funeral Home, Groton, in charge.