

in good positions.

8-18-1905

✓ Mrs. Mulholland died at her home in Minneapolis, Tuesday, and the body was brought to Groton, yesterday for interment in Union cemetery. Ira and W. W. Gaston, father and brother of the deceased, went to the city on account of the lady's illness, first of the week. Mr. Mulholland and a sister of the deceased came out to attend the burial. Funeral services were held in Minneapolis and only the burial service was held here.