

Melvin Norris

Funeral services were held Thursday for Melvin Bernard Norris, 69, Watertown, who died July 10.

Services were at the Mount Olive Lutheran Church in Watertown with the Rev. Roger C. Fischer officiating.

Pallbearers were Willard Grams, Loren Grams, Stanford Grams, Lloyd Svalland, Henry Murphy and George Dylla. Honorary pallbearers were Roy Sombke, Orville Sturm, Donald Tritz, Harry Sandstrom, Henry Behrens and Henry Streich.

Mr. Norris was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Norris on Nov. 7, 1908, in Andover. On Feb. 2, 1932, he married Rose Frieda Grams at Windom, Minn., and for the next 33 years was engaged in farming in Minnesota and South Dakota until he retired in 1971 when he came to Watertown. Since living there, Mr. Norris helped on a farm and was also a custodian for the Watertown Public Schools.

Mr. Norris is survived by his wife, Rose of Watertown; two daughters, Mrs. Clifford (Janice) Olson of McIntosh, Minn., and Mrs. Neil (Lynn) Holscher of Waubay; one son, Lowell of Renton, Wash.; two sisters, Mrs. Agnes Goodness and Mrs. Alice Murphy both of Groton; three brothers, Mathew Norris of Omaha, Neb., Kenneth Norris of Windom, Minn., and Donald Norris of Atlanta, Ga.; and seven grandchildren.