

June 24, 1954

Former Groton Man, 51, Dies at Wadena, Minn.

Clarence R. Quincer, 51, for many years operator of a theatre at Wadena, Minn, died Thursday after suffering a heart attack a week previous.

Clarence went to Wadena with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Quincer from Groton 36 years ago and had taken over active management of the theatre in 1940. Funeral services were held in that city at the Emmanuel Lutheran church, Monday.

Mr. Quincer was a nephew of Mrs. Emma Rock of this city. Among those attending the last rites were: Mrs. Emma Rock, grandchildren, Russell and Maurine Rock, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pray, Mr. and Mrs. Algot Johnson and Margaret, Mrs. Wm. Heitman, Mr. and Mrs. Vance E. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Witt, and Mrs. Ida Pfeifer of this vicinity; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Preston and Mrs. Ella Pfeifer of Aberdeen, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ludtka of Ellendale, N. Dak.