

February 12, 2007

James A. Raap

- James A. Raap, 58, long time York, NE. resident, died February 4, 2007 at Bryan Lincoln General Hospital East in Lincoln, NE. on February 4, 2007.
- He was born at Aberdeen to Arthur J. and Erna L. (Keup) Raap on August 7, 1948. He was baptized and confirmed at Zion Lutheran Church in Andover. He attended Andover Public School through his freshman year. He finished his last three years at Groton High School.
- He lived in several states, settling in the York area. He spent several years as a salesman for Nebraska Iowa Industrial Fasteners, Corp. Jim was a very special person with a big heart and is dearly missed by his family.

- Survivors include one son, Jesse, Lincoln, NE., one brother, John and Georgia, Twin Falls, ID.; three sisters, Marlene and Nathan Eickmann, Kearney, NE.; Sharon and Jerry Busch, Bristol; and Audrey and Roger Morehouse, Boyce, LA; and many nieces and nephews.
- He is preceded in death by his parents, an infant sister at birth, and one sister, Bettyjean Madden in 2001.
- A memorial service and burial will be held at a later date at Zion Lutheran Church in Andover.

James Raap, 58

James Raap, 58, long-time resident of York, Neb., died February 4, 2007 at Bryan Lincoln General Hospital East, Lincoln, Neb.

James A. Raap was born August 7, 1948 to Arthur J. and Erna (Keup) Raap, Pierpont. He was baptized September 12, 1948 and confirmed at Zion Lutheran Church, Andover. He attended school at Andover Public School, graduating from Groton High School, Groton.

He lived in several states, settling in York, Neb. area. He spent several years as a salesman for Nebraska-Iowa Industrial Fasteners Corp.

Jim was a very special person, with a big heart, and is dearly missed by his family.

He is survived by one son, Jesse Raap, Lincoln, Neb.; one brother, John (Georgia) Raap, Twin Falls, Idaho; three sisters, Marlene (Nathan) Eickmann, Kearney, Neb.; Sharon (Jerry) Busch, Bristol, and Audrey (Roger) Morehouse, Boyce, La., and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; an infant sister at birth, and one sister, Bettyjean Madden in 2001.

Marlene Eickmann and Sharon Busch sang solos during the service.