

October 20, 1949

Frank A. Rapp

Adam Rapp, elderly pioneer, passed away Monday at the Peabody Memorial hospital.

He was born in Lodi, Wis., and attended school there and later the University of Wisconsin at Madison. As a young man he came to the territory with his mother and sisters and brothers, and set a homestead in Gem township. He married Victoria McKiver and to them four children were born.

He retired from active farming several years ago. He served as assessor for Groton city for two years.

He preceded him in death on 1935. His four children, Mrs. Frost, Wichita, Kan.; Earl J. P. Ellsbury and Mrs. S. Groton; two grandsons, Elsbury, Wichita, Kan., and Groton, and one great-grandson, James Ellsbury, of Wichita,

Funeral services will be held at the Groton church on Friday, at 10 a. m., with the Rev. Sam Beam officiating. Burial will be in the Groton Union ceme-