

January 22, 1970

Harry W. Raynes

Services for Harry W. Raynes, M.C., a and lifelong resident of Andover were held in Andover at 2 p. m., y, Jan. 19, at the United Meth-church with the Rev. James Vos-ing. Burial was in the Andover Cemetery.

Raynes died Thursday at St.
Hospital in Aberdeen.

Funeral services were provided by Mrs. Milard Hannon, who sang a solo and a duet with her son, Nathan accompanied by James McKane Sr., organist.

Pall bearers were Glenn Baule, Harvey Hannon, Harvey Hannon Robertson, Fred Steffen and Wm.
Meyer. Honorary pall bearers were John Charles, Tom DeVries, Benjamin S. V. Knudsen, James Mc-Clifford Shannon, H. A. Somers and Harry Wall.

Harry W. Raynes was born April 15, 1897, to Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Raynes at Andover. He attended the Andover School and later became a druggist. He owned and operated the Andover Pharmacy for many years.

He married Edith Schuester Deetz, of Springfield, Ill., June 5, 1923. He was a member of the United Methodist Church, the American Legion and South Aberdeen Pharmaceutical Society. He was a good man and always lived in Andover.

Surviving are his widow; two sons, Harry Raynes, Salinas, Calif., and Walter Raynes, Avondale, Colo.; a daughter, Mrs. Edith Raynes, Seattle, Wash.; a brother, Dr.
Harry Raynes, Seattle; two sisters, Mrs.
Kathleen Scott, Wenatchee, and Mrs. Glen (Marjorie) Hoffman, Seattle, Wash., and seven grandchildren.