

LADIES ✓ ANSWER SUMMONS

CHARLES ROGERS AND
HENRY BAHR PASS
TO BEYOND 3-13-24

was called upon to mourn of two of her estimable lad-week, when Mrs. Charles Mrs. Henry Bahr were
their last resting place.
passed away Saturday
the death of Mrs. Bahr
are twenty-four hours
Monday morning.

ers' death was caused effects of pneumonia. She suffering for the past several this malady and at one time were held for her recovery.
proved too much for her constitution and she expired all the comforts that lov-could give her in her last ers has been an active social and fraternal life for the past 25 years. She actively identified with the Society of the Methodist at the time of her death a second term as presisociety. She was also a the Lady Maccabees, and tion of energy and counsel factor in the maintain-organization.

past twenty-three years has been acting as sub-carrier for her husband, one of carriers in point of service and, and her daily presence ing words will be sadly miss.
who have been accustomed her each morning as she appearance at the postoffice.
ative of Michigan.

gers was born at Gratton, y, Mich., on November 8, teen years later, or on Oc-he was married to Charles Greenville, Michigan, and happy union three children Will Rogers, who lives at ale, near Rapid City; Mrs. en, of Braham, Minn., and Harris, of this city. In and Mrs. Rogers came to settling near Amherst. For twenty-five years they have Groton, and for the past 23 th have been engaged in the service out of Groton.

gers leaves to mourn her husband and three children entioned, together with two ers, Mrs. Scarvel and Mrs.
f, of Greenville, Mich., and Mrs. Rose Pike, of Minne-with the two daughters of Mrs. Rogers were present at ral, and Mrs. E. W. Lewis, of ake, N. D., who was unable to services were held from the church in Groton Monday Rev. C. B. Harrold, of Hupastor of the body, offici-and the remains were laid to Groton cemetery.

generosity and kindness of and disposition, Mrs. Rogers even and beloved throughout community. No sacrifice of her strength was too great for make when called upon by or friends, or associates in organizations to which she belong-was her gift of initiative ative ability that she quickly leadership with any group with she worked. Her devotion to ones is a circumstance, with entire community is ae-ber of the rural mail carriers county attended her funeral in

They were: Mr. and Mrs. F. man, of Mansfield; Mrs. B. A.
Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Moe-
and Mrs. John Nelson, G. W.
Elmer Vlechar, of Aberdeen, and Mrs. H. C. Winburn, of attending the funeral from town were the carriers above and Mr. and Mrs. A. W.

of Aberdeen, Mrs. Mike
and Miss Mayme Rapp, also Aberdeen; Mr. and Mrs. Frank of Hecla and Kimball Taylor port.