

July 9, 1975

Melvin Rose

Melvin Conrad Rose, 70, Helena, Mont., died Friday evening, June 27, at a hospital in Helena following a brief illness.

Mr. Rose was born Nov. 20, 1904, near Groton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rose, nee Barbara Von Wald. The family lived on a farm southwest of Groton many years. He attended school near Groton. He moved to Chicago where he worked in a mill and was married on June 26, 1940. In 1947 they moved to Helena.

Survivors include his stepdaughter, Mrs. Mildred Curtis, Helena; four brothers, a twin, Ervin Rose, Chicago, Walter Rose, New England, N.D., Alfred Rose, Hettinger, N.D., and Arnold Rose, Bucyrus, N.D.; four sisters, Mrs. Leo (Emma) Askling, Mrs. Orville (Marian) Honeyman, Mrs. Glen (Dorothy) Hofland, Reeder, N.D., and Mrs. Eric (Sadie) Horvey, Hettinger, N.D.; one granddaughter; and one great-granddaughter.

He was preceded in death by his