Fred Sauerwein

Funeral services for Fred Sauerwein, 78, Andover, were held Friday, Sept. 8th, in the Andover Methodist Church with Rev. James Vos officiating. Burial was in the Andover cemetery.

Mrs. James McKane Sr. presided at the organ. Whalley Loe of Pierpont sang two solos.

Pall bearers were James DeBilzan, Archie Morehouse, Fred Steffen, Ray Gunderson, Robert Lapham and Henry Wall. Ed Hayenga was usher.

Fred Henry Sauerwein was born to Henry and Annie Sauerwein May 5, 1889 at Chicago, Ill. In 1911 he came to Odesa, Minn., to work. On July 13, 1913 he married Lizzie Krueger. They moved to Andover in 1920 and he worked as a Round House Man for the Milwaukee railroad and a carpenter by trade. For the past six years he was owner of the Golden Nugget. He has been in failing health the past eight months following a stroke in January.

Survivors include his wife, Lizzie (Betty); a son, Donald of Pierpont; a brother, John of San Diego, Calif.; five grandchildren, three nieces and two nephews.

He was preceded in death by his oldest son at the age of 11 years, his parents, a sister, Maude and brother, Henry.

Ackerson Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
