WILLIAM VEITCH

Wm. Veitch, veteran of the civil war, pioneer South Dakotan of Spink and Brown Counties, responded to the last summons on Saturday afternoon. Deceased was a native of New York, born in St. Lawrence Co., in 1841, so was seventy-two years of age at time of his death.

For a year or more he had been in extremely feeble health, following a partial stroke of paralysis. His wife died very suddenly little more than two years ago.

Funeral services will be held from the home this afternoon at two o'clock.

As a veteran of the civil war, he served in the navy.

He is survived by one son, Wm. Roy Veitch, publisher of the Herald and postmaster at Groton.

A good citizen has gone to his reward. Peace to his ashes.
