Obituary

Kenneth Webb, 89

Kenneth Webb, 89, Houghton, died Sunday, June 29, 2014 at Bethesda Home, Aberdeen, with family surrounding him.

His service will be 6:30 p.m., Wednesday, July 2, 2014 at Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel, Groton, with Rev. Bill Duncan officiating. Private burial will take place at Sunset Memorial Gardens, Aberdeen, with Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel, Groton, in charge of arrangements. Visitation will be held 2 p.m. at the funeral home, Wednesday, until the time of service.

Kenneth Lyle Webb was born January 28, 1925 in Aberdeen to Delbert and Hannah (Tobiason) Webb. He attended Helca High School. He began farming after school. He was united in marriage June 21, 1955 to Geraldine "Jerry" Daly in Columbia, and together they made their home and raised their family south of Houghton. Following his wife's death in March 2002, he moved into Parkside Retirement Community, Aberdeen.

He was a member of the Alliance Church in Houghton and Aberdeen and served as a deacon there. He was active on the Township Board, 4-H Club, and coached little league baseball and softball for many years. In earlier years, he played baseball and ran track. Kenny enjoyed Northern State basketball games, attending cattle shows and all of the grandchildren's activities. He also loved spending time with his family and friends and will forever be remembered for his practical jokes and mischievous personality. His grandchildren were very special to him and he enjoyed time spent with them on the farm.

Celebrating his life are three children, Kathy Neitzel, Aberdeen; Karma (Bret) Olson, Aberdeen, and Kent Webb (Ranae Ball), Groton; eight grandchildren, Stephanie Lee, Angie Huff, Eric Olson, Brittany Olson, Shane Olson, Alicia Olson, Hannah Webb and Turner Webb; six great grandchildren, Tanner Neitzel, Collin Huff, Brady Huff, Alaina Huff, Porter Olson and Beckett Olson.

Preceding him in death were his parents, his wife, and one sister, Dorothy Koch.

Honorary casketbearers will be the Koch family and all of his friends at Parkside Retirement Community. Casketbearers will be his grandchildren.
