James Edward White

James Edward White passed away suddenly at about 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Ethel Daly, where he had roomed for the past 15 years. He had been in poor health for the past two months, and returned home from St. Luke's Hospital in Aberdeen at noon the day he died.

Mr. White would have been 87 years old in February, and had been a familiar figure on the city's streets for a long period of years. He was a happy-go-lucky Irishman, who made many friends. He has no known surviving relatives.

Born on February 22, 1871, near Grand Rapids, Mich., he came to Dakota in the early days and has made Groton his home for many, many years.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Paetznick Funeral Home, at 2:30 p. m., with Father E. J. Coyne officiating. Burial was in the Groton cemetery.
