Services for Mrs. Helmuth (Helen) Zastrow, 65, Columbia were held 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 11, at St. John's Lutheran Church in Columbia with the Rev. Craig Grams officiating.

Burial was in Columbia Cemetery.

Mrs. Zastrow died Tuesday, Nov. 7, at St. Luke's Hospital.

Casketbearers were Bruce and Roger Zastrow, both of Columbia; Edward Neff and Lincoln Gibbs, both of Claremont; James Nelson, Aberdeen; and Roland Tullis, Groton.

Honorary casketbearers were all of her friends.

Mrs. Arthur Yeske was the organist and Mrs. James Nelson was the soloist.

Ushers were Karl Eichler and Bert Rystrom.

Helen Irene Neff was born May 19, 1913, at Minoka, Ill. She came to South Dakota with her family in December 1914, and settled in the Barnard area, where she attended school. In 1922 the family moved to the Houghton area where she grew up. She later moved to Claremont and married Helmuth (Max) Zastrow on July 24, 1931, at Columbia.

They farmed in the Columbia area until they retired in 1961 and moved into Columbia. While there she was employed by Kimball Electric and later served as a clerk for the post office there until her retirement in 1977.

She was a member of the Ladies Aid of the church.

Survivors include her husband; two sons, Jerry of Sioux Falls; and Robert of Columbia; one daughter, Mrs. Jerome (Ardyth) Herrick, Aberdeen; one brother, Eldon Neff, Lompoc, Calif.; one sister, Mrs. Ann Andrews, Claremont; and 11 grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, one brother and one sister.
