

Arnold O. Zoellner, 43

Arnold O. Zoellner, 43, Groton died Tuesday, Jan. 11, 2000 at his residence outside of Groton.

His funeral was Friday, Jan. 14, 2000 at First Presbyterian Church, Groton, with the Rev. Lyla Siebrecht officiating. Burial was in the Groton Union Cemetery, with Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel, Groton, in charge of arrangements.

Arnold Otto Zoellner was born December 30, 1956 to Robert and Carole (Swanson) Zoellner in Aberdeen. He attended school in Groton. He was a member of the Groton High Football team and attended the State Convention of Young Citizens League in Pierre. Following graduation in 1975, he farmed outside of Groton.

He enjoyed hunting and playing cards. He also collected tractors and several times attended the Big Iron Fair held in North Dakota.

He is survived by one brother, Art, Aberdeen; two sisters, Karen, Aberdeen, and Roberta (Kyle) Starkey, Long Beach, Calif.; and one nephew, Alexander.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one infant brother.

Casketbearers were Steve Swanson, Paul Swanson, Kevin Swanson, Bill Zoellner, Loel Schott, Jack McKiver, Greg Siefkes and Charles Robinson. Honorary casketbearers will be all friends and neighbors.

Organist was Marie Sternhagen and the congregation sing "How Great Thou Art," "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Children of the Heavenly Father." Ushers were John Clark and Ben Anderson.

